Any act, event, omission, happening or non-happening will only be considered Force Majeure if it is not attributable to the wilful act, neglect or failure to take reasonable precautions of the affected party, its agents or employees.
- 9.2 The defaulting or delaying party shall give prompt written notice of the force majeure event to the other party, stating the period of time the occurrence is expected to continue.
- 9.2.1 The parties agree to cooperate in good faith to mitigate the effect of any such delay or failure to perform in order to avoid or minimise disruption.
- 9.2.2 If the delay means that the parties cannot perform the obligations within the required dates, then the parties will consider deferring the fulfilment of these obligations to a time when they are able to be fulfilled or provide options as set out in clause 8.2.
- 9.3 If We cancel or significantly change Your Course or Programme before the commencement date as a result of a Force Majeure event, We will endeavour to re-schedule the Programme or offer a full refund of Tuition Fees, in accordance with Section 8.2.
